

TWO FULL TUITION FREE PHD SCHOLARSHIPS in the field of Music Therapy Research AAU April 2023

The Department of Communication and Psychology, Aalborg University, Denmark, offers two full tuition free PhD Scholarships in music therapy research. The Scholarships are directed towards the applied use of music in health, education and social service programmes in clinical areas of music therapy, or for clinically related theoretical research. Research projects will primarily be aimed at music therapy but can also be in art-based therapies or associated fields. The PhD specialisation is linked to the five-year master programme in music therapy. The doctoral students are trained in a stimulating and enriching international and cross-disciplinary research environment and are offered a learning community founded on problem based learning principles.

The tuition free scholarship covers:

- Registration fees at Aalborg University
- Research supervision
- Six integrated Aalborg PhD courses (each 5 ECTS)
- Introductory ethics course
- Expenses covered for yearly travels to, and accommodation in, Aalborg
- The possibility to have additional research specific expenses covered
- Assessments and defense of the PhD thesis

There is no salary attached to the scholarships, and no teaching obligations.
